3/2017 Spring Gala Benefit Auction

E.B. Schott is honored to have the opportunity offer one of her pieces to the American Classical Orchestra for their upcoming charity auction. The piece titled, "Winter Winds" is a 12" x 12" multi-media/oil on canvas.

About ACO:

The American Classical Orchestra is devoted to preserving and performing the repertoire of 17th—to—19th century composers, playing the works on original or reproduced period instruments. Through concerts and educational programs, the musicians use historic performance practice techniques and pass these skills down to future generations.

For more information about ACO visit: www.aconyc.org