

“Hole in the Heart”

First Friday Exhibit at Whole in the Wall, March 2, 2018 and April 6, 2018

By: E.B. Schott

E.B. Schott shares the resulting confusion, frustration and angst issued by a “Hole in the Heart” instigated by verbal vomit that pervades our lives.

This vacuous black hole is siphoning our hearts’ positive life forces into a seemingly infinite abyss leaving behind unbalanced negativity that is buttressing the slippery quagmire of the residual mundanity of life.

However, our omniscient eye can imbue our inner and outer selves by allowing choices to either harm or heal the hole in our hearts...

You can see more creations at www.ebschott.com

About the artist: This successful eclectic artist, E.B.Schott, is an emerging Abstract Expressionist who is a perceptive, visual, kinesthetic, universal, holistic learner who sees the world in pictures and numbers. E.B.Schott experiments with her palette by composing her works of contemporary abstract expression with multi-media; incorporating oils, acrylics and encaustic, inspired and aided by nature. E.B. channels the Zeitgeist of our times into her creations.